Harmony University Has Special Options Available for Locals

Harmony University will return to Belmont University in Nashville in 2017. While the week-long experience is not to be missed, this year there are several opportunities available for locals who wish to drive in for a day.

JULY 23-30, 2017

What about locals?

If you are not attending HU all week long but could drive to our campus for a day, we have several options!

Private lessons

Take a private lesson in arranging, conducting, performing, sight singing, and voice from our world class faculty. You don't have to be a full time HU student to take advantage of our wonderful teachers...just drive on over to Belmont!

Saturday Only Pass

Take any of our electives, grab a lunch and dinner, watch the big show, and eat ice cream with all 700 of us!

Honor's Chorus

Join our Women's Chorus, under the direction of Mo Field, or our Men's Chorus, under the direction of Kirk Young, Monday – Friday from 2 pm to 4:30. Get music, tracks, and world class life changing coaching. This is for our drive in locals who can't take a week off, but want to have a great barbershop experience. No food, dorm, or other classes are included with this ticket.

Local Quartet Coaching

Are you a local men's or women's quartet that can't be with us for the week, but want to take advantage of our coaches from all over the world? Look through our list of 60+ coaches and choose the coach for your group! You will meet from 7 to 9 pm with 1 coach, and have the option of selecting different nights with different coaches. Once you pay, our HU planners will connect you to your coach.
